Court Day Sales.

A LARGE crowd of court day visitors in Paris yesterday made activity in trading circles. There were about five hundred cattle on the market but all were not sold. Auctioneer Peak sold for B. F. Bedford Jr. thirty 1,000-lb. cattle to Ed Weathers, at $43.75 each, thirty six cattle at $43.75 each, and fifty-seven calves at $20 each for Simon Weil to J. E. Clay. B. F. Bedford, Jr., sold eighteen cattle to J. E. Clay at $47.40 each. Simon Weil sold thirty-six cattle to J. D. Booth at four to five cents. There were a number of mules offered, the best selling at from $120 to $125 each. Thos. McClintock sold several at these prices, and Mann & Fuhrman sold several pairs at $200 and upwards per pair. Several dealers had a good trade in buggies, wagons and agricultural implements.

I MUST close out in two weeks. Come early before all bargains are taken up. Ed F. HUTCHCRAFT.

Taffeta silks in all colors for linings, skirts and waists, at Frank & Co's.

Jacob Troutman, of Jessamine, sold ten acres of tobacco which averaged $228.75 cents per acre.

Nearly all of the Bourbon hemp crop has been sold and delivered. Brent Bros. bought most of it at $3.50 per cwt.

The Acme Mill Company of Hopkinsville, bought of the Julien Wheat Growers' Club, 40,000 bushels at $1 per bushel.

Jas. H. Hulet, of Jessamine, sold 30,000 pounds of tobacco to Liggett & Myers, of St. Louis, at fourteen cents per pound.

The Jessamine Journal says: During the past week Brown Cogar and R. A. Dodd have bought 20,000 bushels of wheat in Jessamine county at $1 per bushel.

Near Elizabethtown last week Simon Weil purchased fifty heavy steers, for May delivery, at $4.75, sixty at $4.50, and 120 at $4.45. They will be exported at an early date.

The Woodford Sun says: Mr. Geo. C. Graddy on Monday bought 1,000 acres of the growing wheat crop in Woodford and Fayette counties at 75¢ a bushel. He bought 250 acres from Mr. Ben Bosworth and 175 acres from Mr. John W. Smedley, of Fayette, 90 acres from Mr. Frank Bohannon, Mr. C. H. Talbott's two-thirds interest in 130 acres and several other crops.

The final payment has been made on the following entries in the Kentucky Derby: Plauditt, Lieber Karl, Banockburn, Dr. Black, Frank Thompson, Gallivant, Isabey, Hand D'O'or, Don Quixote, Peacemaker, Sackett, Irwin, Judge Quigley, Goodrich, Oxnard, Widower, Marcato, Sound Money, Swing, Dominis, Pontus, Clay Poynter, Tencer and Chalfonte. Three hundred and fifty horses are quartered at the track at Louisville.

E. A. Tipton, Manager of the Montana Racing Circuit, left Lexington Thursday for Anaconda. Attached to the same train was Marcus Daly's private horse car, containing a number of valuable horses which Mr. Tipton purchased for Mr. Daly. The horses were in charge of Ben Kenney. In the same car Joe Redmond took his own horses John Havlin, Serrano and a three-year-old colt, besides the horse Byron McClelland, which Mr. Redmond sold to Mr. Tipton for a Montana man.

A Quar Offer.

ONE of our advertisers makes a peculiar announcement in this issue, offering $250. for the oldest piano in this neighborhood. Those whose nerves have been jangled by discordant walls from instruments that have long outlived their usefulness will hope that he will buy and burn them all. Such a devoutly to be wished for consummation is too good to be true, however, and we are left to wonder what he wants with the old pianos anyhow.
